

Active or passive?

They broke the window when they were playing football.

The window is broken.

The letters are translated by the secretary.

The secretary translates the letters.

Complete the sentences. Put the verbs in brackets into the correct tense of the passive voice.

Every year lots of animals _____ for their fur. (kill)

Fur coats _____ by people in many countries. (wear)

Oil _____ all over the world. (use)

Not long ago lions and tigers _____. (hunt)

Now many of them _____ in reserves. (look after)

In the future they _____ by international law. (protect)

Complete the sentences. Choose from this list: all – as – about – in .

I just wanted to say sorry _____ the mess.

_____ you can see, I'm not very happy.

You've got to pay _____ advance.

Don't worry, we _____ make mistakes.

Rewrite the sentences. Use might.

Perhaps mum will help me do my homework.

It's possible that they will win the championship.

Perhaps Joe will buy a new book.

It's possible that it will rain tomorrow.

What's the weather like?

If it's _____, hold on to your hat!

If the roads are _____, drive very carefully.

If it's _____ you can go to the beach.

If it's very _____, you can't see anything.

How high is the temperature?

0 degree Celsius:

35 degrees Celsius:

5 degrees Celsius:

10 degrees Celsius:

20 degrees Celsius:

Write the name of the natural feature to the definition.

An imaginary line round the earth at its biggest point:

A hot place where few plants grow:

A piece of land surrounded by water:

A big sea:

A very large area of land:

A large area full of trees: